Coram, Inc. and MedAvant™ Healthcare Solutions Expand National Relationship to Include Pharmacy Services for NPPN

Denver, CO, September 18, 2006 – Coram, Inc., a leading national provider of specialty home infusion and specialty pharmaceutical distribution services, announced that effective June 1, 2006, it has expanded its agreement with MedAvant Healthcare Solutions (MedAvant) to include specialty pharmacy services for MedAvant's National Preferred Provider Network (NPPN), one of the largest national preferred provider organizations in the country.

“Based on our longstanding and positive relationship with Coram, we have no doubt that this expansion will be of great benefit to our NPPN members and providers,” said John Lettko, CEO of MedAvant.

Coram currently provides a robust spectrum of home infusion services to NPPN members throughout the country. These services include drugs and nursing services for anti-infectives, nutrition, IVIG, alpha-1 antitrypsin deficiency, cardiac/inotropic, pain management and transplant therapies.

“We are delighted that our long and positive relationship with MedAvant is expanding to include specialty pharmacy services for NPPN, one of the largest PPOs in the country,” said John J. Arlotta, Chairman and CEO of Coram, Inc.
